Another World

Hi all,

I am running a youth Bible Study through the month of July. I wrote this in June but it's for sure. So the dates are

July 5, 12, 19, 29 from 7-9pm @ MCC I know that God wants us to know him more and this is an opportunity to take your understanding of who God is deeper.

No more wishy-washy answers when someone asks you "what is your relationship with God?" You need to know! The study we will be doing is fun and will help you articulate what Jesus did on the cross for you. Or learn what He did for the first time! There is a movie component—"The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrob", a book (and now movie) that has inspired me hugely and I know that it will for you too.

You can for sure invite friends to this. And even if you can't come every time, it's worth making it when you can. Come with your Bibles and be ready to be inspired by the Word of God.

Youth Events

Don't forget to RSVP to July 15 and July 24 so I know quantities!

- Capture the Flag & Fire: July 2, 7-10pm @ Kelly's House. I've got a forest, it no longer has knee deep snow (thank you!) and it would be a riot to run through the woods then warm up at the toasty fire. Come!!!
- TBA TBA: July 8, sometime @ somewhere. I don't know what we'll do yet but I want to do something. I'll keep you posted!
- 3 Course Campfire Cookout: July 15, 5:30-10pm @ Michelle Supple's House. I realized that many of you have never cooked a 3 course meal, nor have you done it over a campfire. So now is the time to learn! Come hungry because it will be delish. None of this wimpy hotdogs. It will be a real hearty meal. Appetizers, main course, drinks, and dessert. Then we will goof off for the rest of the night. Love it!

(parents willing???) to the LRT in south Calgary, the public transit it to Olympic Plaza. At the end of the evening, we'll take the train back to south Calgary where your parental can pick you up. The cost of the trip is $5 to Kelly and I'll take care of tickets. Bring a bag lunch and some money for supper at the festival.

- Festival Latino: July 24, after church until the evening @ Olympic Plaza, Downtown Calgary. There is a festival going on that looks like all sorts of fun. We'll catch a lift from church

There are some booths selling stuff there so if you've been saving up, you could bring a few extra moneys. Even if you don't care about festivals this will be fun. It's downtown for goodness sakes!
